Today, the Lord Jesus continues to develop last Sunday's idea of union with him as a condition to bear fruits of holiness in our lives. He does so by emphasizing that keeping his “Love Commandment” is the practical way to show the reality of our union with him and to bear fruit. There is a life-giving relationship between union with Jesus and fruitfulness, fruitfulness and love, love and obedience to God's Commandments. The Eucharist we are about to celebrate is a manifestation of our union with the Lord and among ourselves. It is also a most effective way to strengthen such union whenever we proclaim God's Word, participate in shared prayer, and receive Holy Communion.

*EuchaletteREADINGS: 6 May '18 - Year B

1st Reading: Acts 10:25-26. 34-35.44-48 The baptism of the Roman centurion Cornelius and all the members of his household was a landmark not only in their lives, but also in the history of the Church. By opening her doors to non-Jews, the Church began to be universal, that is: the home of all nations and cultures as Jesus intended her to be.

2nd Reading: 1 Jn 4:7-10 Today, the apostle St. John reminds us of the essential relationship between authentic love and knowledge of God. He also underlines that Jesus is the greatest manifestation of the Father's love for us.

Gospel: Jn 15:9-17 By keeping Christ's commandments, the believers become an integral part of the chain of love which binds together the Father and Jesus, Jesus and his disciples, and the disciples among themselves.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM - 6 May '18

"The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power!"

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION – Alleluia! Alleluia! "Whoever loves me will keep my word," says the Lord, "and my Father will love him and we will come to him." Alleluia! Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON – "If you love me, keep my commandments, says the Lord, and I will ask the Father and he will send you another Paraclete, to abide with you forever. Alleluia!"

Sacred Heart's Mother's Day Cake Stall – NEXT SUNDAY May 13

The Sacred Heart Parish Library is coming back to life. We have some wonderful books and DVDs for children as well as great reading for adults. Until we have a permanent place to store the whole library, a selection of books will be displayed before and after the 9am Mass each Sunday - you can borrow them for 2 weeks at a time. Come and have a chat to us about what you would like to read to your children and are interested in yourself.

This week's selection:

For the children – we have a great series on the saints by Mary Fabyan Windeatt; for example the story of Saint Thomas Aquinas "The Story of the Dumb Ox". There are 20 books in this series – why not take one at a time and read them all to your children! You will learn a lot yourself as well.

For adults – another great series of books by Louis de Wohl – novels based on the lives of the saints; for example the story of Saint Thomas Aquinas "The Quiet Light", a thrilling story of Knights, Emperors, Popes and amidst it all Saint Thomas. If you find a book you would like to acquire yourself the Piety Stall will be happy to order it for you.
